Brazilian E-Commerce Executive Performance Report

Comprehensive Portfolio Analysis: Cohort Retention & Customer RFM Segmentation

TOTAL CUSTOMERS	TOTAL REVENUE	TOTAL ORDERS	AVG ORDER VALUE
93.36K	R$ 13.23M	96.48K	R$ 137.08

Executive Summary

Analysis of 96,478 delivered orders reveals a high-volume platform generating R$ 13.23 million in total gross revenue across 93,358 unique customers. While the initial acquisition volume remains robust across all Brazilian states, the core growth bottleneck lies in extremely low customer retention. Over 99% of acquired users perform only a single transaction, indicating that revenue growth is currently driven almost entirely by new acquisition rather than repeat purchases.

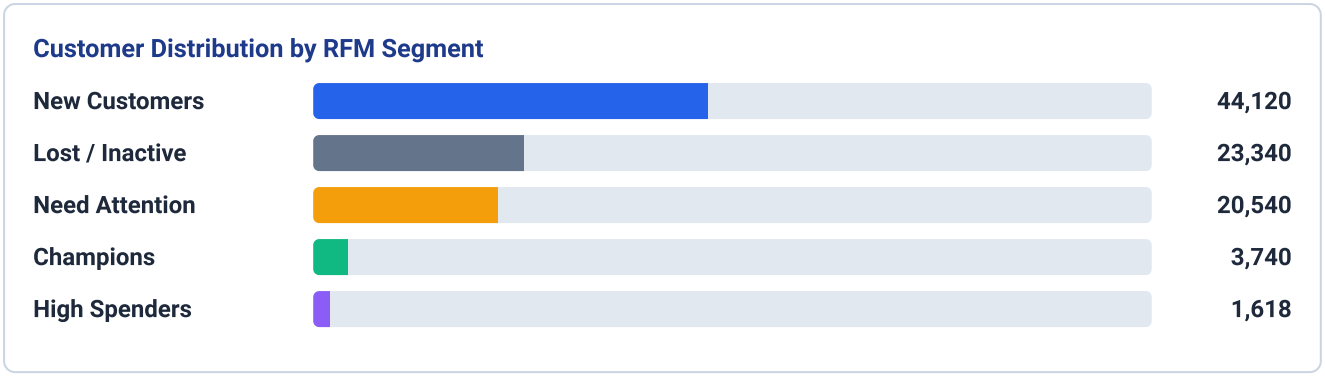

Monthly Cohort Acquisition & Retention Breakdown

Cohort Month	Acquired Customers	Month 1 Repeat	Month 2 Repeat	Month 3 Repeat	Retention Rate (%)
Jan 2017	7,559	25	27	21	0.33%
Feb 2017	7,916	25	30	21	0.32%
Mar 2017	9,277	38	29	30	0.41%
Apr 2017	8,838	53	25	20	0.60%
May 2017	9,957	50	33	22	0.50%
Jun 2017	8,915	40	28	13	0.45%
Jul 2017	9,701	51	13	9	0.53%
Aug 2017	10,201	28	14	11	0.27%

Key Retention Finding: The platform suffers from a one-time purchase pattern. Across all cohorts, the retention rate drops below 1% starting in the very first month after purchase. Strengthening post-purchase onboarding and implementing re-engagement incentives are critical steps to improve customer lifetime value.

Customer Segmentation (RFM Distribution)

Customers were segmented using standard Recency, Frequency, and Monetary (RFM) criteria to understand user value distribution and prioritize retention efforts.
